THE ARRIVAL OF A STRANGER

Filio Christou
Anna Syrianou

National Technical University of Athens
Xenos (stranger): a superimposed identity of a person in a situation of problematic contact with the "other". A "stranger" is both acknowledged to a group and remains distant simultaneously. Term assigned to someone when there is a difficulty in communication occurring consciously or not from a personal, cultural, difference.
Identity: Xenos

Expectations: Towards a new home

Reality: Discrimination & Restriction
Facilities: Reception and Identification Center, Detention Area //containers, tents
Management: Hellenic Army/Police/MoMP
Population: 8.000, adults, minors, families
Boundaries: Double fences, multiple control points
Living conditions: unhealthy, overcrowded
Network: poor connection with town by bus 30 min. to the city
Facilities: Accommodation // containers
Management: Municipality
Population: Families and vulnerable people 3.500
Boundaries: Fences, physical boundaries, one control point
Living conditions: Decent living conditions, social activities
Network: bus, 20 min. to town
Facilities: Accommodation // wooden ready-made houses
Management: Self-organised
Population: unaccompanied minors, people in vulnerable state, max. 150
Boundaries: loose, no control point
Living conditions: good living conditions, personal autonomy
Network: bus, 15 min. to the city
Places refer to refugees
Places against refugees
PART I
PART II
kids' recreational space
library
Gym
laundry toilet kindergarden barbers'
restaurant
Communication center

RESIDENCY FOR MEN
RESIDENCY FOR WOMEN
RESIDENCY FOR MINORS
RESIDENCY FOR FAMILIES
SOCIAL STRUCTURE
Supervisors

Giorgos Aggelis (Assistant Professor National Technical University of Athens)

Penny Koutrolikoy (Assistant Professor National Technical University of Athens)

Credits

Aris & Christy Petropoulou (Assistant Professors in University of Aegean)

Michalis Poulimas (PhD Candidate University of Aegean)

Elias Pistikos (PhD Candidate University of Aegean)

Demetra Glenti (Architect N.T.U.A.)

Demetri Triantafylou (M.s.F.)

Apostolis Tsakpinis (Merci Crops)

Gabriela Shapazian (Activist)
Thank you for your attention